

Mommy Hugs: A “Together Poem”

Share this poem aloud! Parents read the lines with the picture of Elmo’s mommy’s face. Children read the lines with Elmo’s face. When you’re finished, share a hug!

The day I became your mom, I knew right from the start, that we would become special friends. I felt it in our very first...

Mommy hugs!

I love you in the daytime, I love you through the night.
I love you on gray, rainy days and when the sun shines bright.
No matter what the day may bring, the best part is always...

Mommy hugs!

We read and sing and play, and snuggle up so tight.
I love all our time together, especially our...

Mommy hugs!

I’m so proud of who you are, growing smart, and strong, and kind.
I love you more than words can say, I’ll show you with my...

Mommy hugs!

Remember that I’m here for you, forever, all the time.
And even when you’re all grown up, we’ll always have...
