

You're Okay: A "Together Poem"

Parents and kids can read this poem aloud together.

Adults read

Kids read

You are strong. You belong.

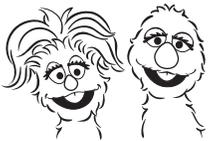

I am strong. I belong.

You'll be alright. You'll hold on tight.

I'll be alright. I'll hold on tight.

You carry others in your heart...even when you're far apart.

I carry others in my heart...even when we're far apart.

You have space to learn and play, and you are growing every day.

I have space to learn and play, and I am growing every day.

In sunny days and stormy weather, we are in this thing together.

We are in this thing together.