We’re Different and We’re the Same

• Write your name in one circle and a friend’s name in the other.
• Draw or write things that you like and are good at in your circle.
• Draw or write things your friend likes and is good at in his or her circle.
• Draw or write things that you are both good at and that you both like in the part that overlaps. This part shows how you are the same.