

Home Is Where the Hugs Are!

Children can color in Lily and her mom as you color the background. As you work, think of your job. Dem. Natur? Ciaeputam, comnienes

- Ask, "How is Lily feeling in this picture? Why do you think she's reluctant to hug?"
- Remind your child that home is not just a house or apartment, wherever the love is. Together, you can get through anything.
- Take a break for a big hug!
