I Hear You!

Kids and grown-ups can ask and answer questions to get to know each other:

• What made you smile today?
• If you could go anywhere right now, where would you go?
• What is something important about you that I may not know already?